

Annex 4: QRDI definition of SME's, LLEs and International Companies (Int):

Small and Medium Sized Enterprises (SME)

- Any for-profit private sector organization registered in Qatar and majority-owned by Qatari citizens and/or residents, with less than 250 employees and an annual revenue not exceeding QAR 100 million.

Large Local Enterprises (LLE)

- Any for-profit organization registered in Qatar with more than 250 employees or has over QAR 100 million in annual revenue, which is majority-owned by Qatari entities, citizens and/or residents.
- Any for-profit organization registered in Qatar as a subsidiary of the above, or as a joint venture between the above and other organizations.

International Companies (Int)

- Any company registered in Qatar which is a subsidiary of an international company
- Any company registered in Qatar, which is a joint venture between an international company and a local organization, where the ownership of the international company exceeds 50%.